“It was an incredible experience.” That was how my mother described our visit to Canada. I spent my last summer holiday with my family in Canada. It was my first visit to a foreign country. When we first landed in Ottawa airport, we were warmly welcomed by my father’s friend. We stayed at a hotel near a famous museum in the capital city of Ottawa.

Canada is the second largest country in the world with a population of 35 million people. It’s a small number compared to the huge size of the country and that’s why most lands are empty. Millions of tourists visit it every year because it is a wonderful country that has a fantastic landscape.

There were a lot of famous and interesting places to visit such as The National Museum and Banff National Park. We also visited Niagara Waterfalls and enjoyed the fascinating view there . At the end of our holiday, we enjoyed shopping, bought some beautiful presents for our friends, and finally got back home pleased and happy.

Humans used camels as means of transportation for thousands of years ago. They used them for the long journeys in the hot and dry deserts. Camels are huge animals that live in the hot areas. They are known as "The Ship Of The Desert".

There are two kinds of camels; The Arabian Camels and The Bactrian Camels. The Arabian Camel lives in the very hot deserts of North Africa and the Middle East. The Bactrian camel is found in the rocky deserts of Asia that get very hot and very cold.

Camel's hump contains water and that's the reason behind their long travels without anything to drink. It can go without water for three or four days. It also can go through wind and sand storms. It is well adapted to desert life
